

GOAZEN DANCE SHOW

The Goazen (Let's Go) dance show will make its United States debut in an exclusive engagement at the Basque Cultural Center on August 20th and 21st. The show was created and choreographed by Pascale Lascano, and depicts ten women Basque dancers who go and visit other countries and integrate their Basque dance into the local folkloric dances of Corsica, Turkey, Ossetia, India, Ecuador and the United States. To see a clip of or get more information on this show, that has been performed all over the Basque Country, please visit www.SFBCC.us.
