

basque film series

The Basque Cultural Center & the Basque Educational Organization present the next installment of the Basque Film Series with a special screening of the film Gure Oroitzapenak. The film will be presented by Nerea Eizagirre, Ph.D. candidate at the William A. Douglass Center for Basque Studies, who will introduce the film and lead a discussion and Q&A after the screening. Nerea's dissertation is on the writings of Sarrionandia. For more information on this film & to see the trailer, please check: www.BasqueEducational.org or scan the QR code below.

Friday, April 8th, 7:30pm

The countenance of Joseba Sarrionandia is multi-faceted, not only for having dabbled in all literary forms of expression, but for having been capable of creating his own imagery, composed of endless worlds. Thus, several of the elements appearing in the literary world will undoubtedly appear here: the sea, the port, childhood, trains, uprooting, war, destruction, love, drifting, pain, fantasy, mystery, initiation, torture...
